Presidential Forum on Disability Issues Scheduled in Columbus

Madasha Madaxda ee Arrimaha Curyaamiinta ee Columbus

Presidential Forum on Disability Issues: Forum, webcast scheduled for September 28, 2012

The National Forum on Disability Issues, scheduled for September 28th in Columbus, Ohio is set to provide presidential and state candidates with the opportunity to provide their positions on a wide variety of disability issues directly to the disability community.

The Forum has also officially launched their new, interactive website, www.nfdi.org and encourages Americans with disabilities, their families and caregivers, and the organizations that serve them to visit the site and attend the Forum.

This website provides important information for attendees, sponsors, media, and all Americans concerned with where the 2012 Presidential candidates stand on issues critical to the 57 million people with disabilities in this country. The forum will be held from 12:30pm- 3:30pm EST on September 28, 2012 and will feature time slots for the candidates to share their visions for the future of disability policy. President Barack Obama and Republican Presidential candidate Governor Mitt Romney, as well as U.S. Senator Sherrod Brown and Republican challenger Josh Mandel, the Ohio Senate candidates, have been invited.

“The National Forum on Disability Issues, the only national Presidential event to focus on issues specific to the disability community, is a great opportunity for both President Obama and Governor Romney to make their stances on disability issues clear. See page 3.

...FORUM ON DISABILITIESMADASHA CURYAANNIMADA...

Over 14.7 million Americans with disabilities voted in the 2008 election. With 1 out of every 5 Americans living with a disability today, their voices and their votes will play a critical role in the 2012 election,” said Sue Hetrick, Director of Public Policy/The Ability Center and Coordinator of the Ohio Disability Vote Coalition. “We are thrilled to launch our new website, and encourage everyone to visit it, register to attend or watch the webcast, and add your support to our call for the Presidential campaigns to come to Ohio and speak about the issues that matter the most to the disability community.”

For more information about the forum, please contact Sue Hetrick at 866-575-8055 or by e-mail at shetrick@abilitycenter.org.

“Madasha Qaranka ee Arrimaha Curyaanka, xafladda keliya ee heer Madaxweyne diiradda u saarta arrimaha u gaarka ah bulshada curyaanka ah, waxay fursad weyn u tahay Madaxweyne Obama iyo Guddoomiye Mitt Romney labaduba in ay soo bayaamiyaan halka ay ka taagan yihiin umuuraha curyaamiinta. In ka badan 14.7 milyuun oo curyaamiin Maraykan ah ayaa codeeyey doorashadii sannadkii 2008. Iyadoo 1 ka mid ah 5tii qof ee Maraykan ah uu curyaannimo qabo maanta, codkooda iyo codeyntoodu waxay door muhiim ah ka geli doontaa doorashada 2012,” ayay tiri Sue Hetrick, Agaasimaha Xarunta The Ability Center iyo Isku duwaha Isbahaysiga Ohio ee Codka Curyaamiinta (Ohio Disability Vote Coalition.)

“Waxaan ku faraxsannahay in aan furno boggeena cusub, waxaan ku dhiirri gelinaynaa qof walba inuu booqdo, iska diiwaan geliyo si uu uga qaybgalo ama u daawado baahinta fiidiyowga, oo taageero siiyo baaqeenna musharaxiinta Madaxtinimadu in ay yimaadaan Ohio oo ay ka hadlaan arrimaha sida gaarka ah u khuseeya bahda curyaamiinta.”

Why Study Somali Language at the Ohio State University

If you are looking for a language that both rhymes and rewards, choose Somali! The Department of African American and African Studies at the Ohio State University houses the largest program in Somali language and culture in the United States.

It is fun to learn Somali because the language has an extremely simplified Latin alphabet structure and words that are written as they sound. You master these sounds at once and you retain them forever. What is more, Somali at the Ohio State University is backed by the presence of one of the largest Somali communities in Central Ohio. You will enjoy authentic food, shopping, and conversations with native Somali speakers at any time.

Learning Somali will also raise your prospects of finding jobs locally, nationally as well as internationally with government agencies, international development organizations and private enterprises that deal with the sizable Somali communities both in the U.S. and in the Horn of Africa region.

Thank you for considering Somali. Come to one of our classes and you will be impressed by the depth of this language and culture.

For more information about the Somali language program at OSU, please contact Jibril Mohamed or Mohammed Omer at (614)292-0758 or by e-mail at Mohamed.196@osu.edu.

NOTICE OF FUNDING AVAILABILITY (NOFA)

Notice of Funds Available (NOFA) –2013

Ohio Developmental Disabilities Council

The Ohio Developmental Disabilities Council has announced $120,000 in new grant funds available for 2013. Interested applicants can submit proposals for the projects listed below using the Council's online grant application program: DD Suite (www.ddsuite.org).

Instructions on how to apply can be found on the Council's website at <http://ddc.ohio.gov/Grant/2012-16StatePlanProposalKit.pdf#page=30>.

All grant awards are contingent upon the availability of federal funds. Applicants must provide cash or in-kind "matching" funds of 33.33% in non-poverty areas and 11.11% in poverty areas.

Questions about a project should be directed to the staff listed below. The Deadline for proposals will be 11:59 p.m., Friday, October 5, 2012.

Grant #12PP01QU13: Strategic Messaging and Advocacy Resource Training (SMART) Grant

Federal Award: $120,000
 Minimum matching requirements:
 Non-poverty Area: $40,000
 Poverty Area: $13,333

Council is providing funds for an entity to conduct the SMART Grant for four years (2013-2016). Funding in the first year will be $120,000 and funding in each of the remaining three years will be $150,000.

The SMART Grant is primarily a strategic communications and capacity building grant designed to improve advocacy organizations' impact on state-level public policy development and implementation.

In conjunction with the Data and Policy Research Grant and the Legislative Advocacy Day Coordinator Grant of Council, the SMART Grant will assist the Council in identifying and developing policy, media, and advocacy strategies that will elevate developmental disability solutions in Ohio.

The grant will also provide support for collaboration and participation in training of advocates by disability organizations across Ohio and active advocacy by advocates.

Grant #12PA01CR13: Public Awareness - Products & Activities Grant

Federal Award: $60,000
 Minimum matching requirements:
 Non-poverty Area: $20,000
 Poverty Area: $6,667

Council is providing funds for an entity to conduct the Public Awareness - Products & Activities Grant for four years (2013-2016).

It is the charge of the ODDC to promote Public Awareness, by working with the grantee in selecting information/products that will make the public aware of insensitivity towards people with developmental disabilities and their families and how these insensitivities adversely affect accessibility levels in society. The grantee would assist Council in getting the public to understand the role Council plays in creating visions, through information by way of products and activities.

Council's products must educate, train and provide valuable information important to and about people with developmental disabilities and their families. Program Staff: Carla R. Sykes, (614) 644-5538; carla.sykes@dodd.ohio.gov
